1. [   ] LIAISON At [   ] request, I arranged for Mr. Shackley, designee AD/DCI/CT; [   ] and [   ] to meet with Jim Howard, Cliff Fowler, Mike Gryszkowiec, and Mike Duffy, of GAO, to discuss changes in the GAO's draft report on [   ] The meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, 19 July 1978 at 9:00 a.m. in the C&R Conference Room.

2. [   ] FOIA/LIAISON I called and spoke with Ms. Jean Wilson, in the office of Senator Richard Schweiker (R., Pa.), concerning the Senator's inquiry on behalf of [   ] who has an FOIA request on file with the Agency and feels we are not forthcoming in sending him information on [   ] I apologized for the delay and explained that, contrary to what [   ] says in his letter to the Senator, CIA has not yet determined that files on [   ] exist within the Agency. I mentioned that our acknowledgement letter only stated that a search would be initiated and that there would be no fees charged. Ms. Wilson says she herself was surprised at his statement and, after a discussion on the backlog of PA and FOIA cases in the Agency, she asked that we write directly to [   ] and explain the backlog and that it would take some time to complete processing of his request. She accepted graciously my comments that his case should not be treated preferentially and should be handled in sequence. I agreed we would reference the Senator's letter to CIA and she would get a copy. IPS has been informed.

3. [   ] LIAISON Along with [   ] PCS/PGL, and [   ] EA Division/DDO, sat in on an interview of Ted Shackley, AD/DCI/CT, conducted by Michael Hershman and Beverley Lumpkin, on the staff of the Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, concerning Mr. Shackley's experiences in [   ] Pursuant to an 11 July request from Chairman Donald M. Fraser (D., Minn.) submitted in accordance with the Addendum to the Memorandum of Understanding between the Chairman and the DCI, staff member Steven Blush reviewed and took notes on a file trace on one [   ] did not finish this review and was advised to return to complete it.
